I am sure that I have missed some things and I know that it is sometimes difficult to adequately describe the look, sound and feel of our school. But I do know that I am grateful and proud in equal measure for the success we deliver at our school, in and out of class, day in, day out. Thank you to all of you who have devoted your time, skill, energy and care to the children. It’s so worth it!

Check us out on Facebook and if you haven’t already done so, “Like” us! And of course, have a look at our website especially the Gallery that has 100’s of amazing photos capturing life at Sandy Beach Public School. What a buzz!

Boys and girls, teachers and support staff…you all deserve a holiday! Have a rest! Be safe. And get ready for more inspirational learning in Term 4. We’ve more to do!
